A visit to Marwell Wildlife is a chance to get close to the wonders of the natural world - and play a big part in helping to save them. From ring-tailed coatis to poison arrow frogs, bird eating spiders to Amur leopards, bat-eared foxes to meerkats and giraffes - our 140 acre zoological park is home to over 220 exotic and charismatic species in beautiful, landscaped surroundings. What's more, simply by visiting us, you'll be making a big contribution to our projects to conserve endangered wildlife both in our park and overseas - so thank you.

more than just a walk in the park
