Conference Rooms

We offer 3 beautifully decorated meeting rooms ranging in size to cater for all your needs.

Long Room

Dimensions - 6.5m wide x 9.5m long

This elegant reception room was named after the eminent physician William Long, who rebuilt Marwell Hall in 1816.

Seymour Library

Dimensions - 5.5m wide x 9.5m long

The ornate Tudor fireplace of this distinguished room bears the coat of arms of the Seymour family. Marwell Hall was owned in the mid 1500's by Sir Henry Seymour, brother of Henry VIII's third wife, Jane and uncle of King Edward VI.

Woodlock Room

Dimensions - 5m wide x 8m long

This airy room, with its deep bay mullioned window, is named after Walter Woodlock who built Marwell Hall in the early C14th.

Outdoor Space

Looking for some space? We have 140 acres for you to explore from networking events on the back lawn, to team building in our Secret Garden, we have a variety of stunning outdoor areas within the zoo available for hire.

Add in some additional activities to get your delegates out and about. Please ask the events team for more details.

Support Us

By holding your event with us, every penny you spend supports the zoo and our conservation projects in the UK and overseas.
