

Session Description

This session focuses on the themes of food webs and interdependence.

Discover relationships between species and their role in the ecosystem.

The session involves a variety of interactive activities to enable students to explore the relationships between living organisms, understand energy flows through food chains and appreciate the interdependence between species.

Session Objectives

To explain how living organisms are interdependent.

To identify adaptations different animals have to help them survive at their trophic level.

Curriculum Links

AQA Sci B 3.3, Sci A B1 Biology B1.4, IGCSE 9.1,
OCR Biology B2, Add Sci B4,
Edexcel Biology B2

Key Skills

Through this session students can practice their observation, classification and investigation skills.

